3rd ANNUAL "FINEST MARIONBERRY PIE IN OREGON" CONTEST

Sponsored by the Oregon Raspberry and Blackberry Commission

Admired for their unique and complex flavor profile, Marionberries have an essence that captures the warmth of a summer day in the great Northwest. Their vibrant purple color packs a powerful nutritional punch that catapults Marionberries to the top of the antioxidant charts. Marionberries present an explosion of flavor and well-being that is larger than life.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRY

- Open to any individual who is a Lane County, Oregon resident; one entry per person. All ages may enter but there will be no "junior" division.
- Entered pie must include at least 60% Marionberries in the filling. It does not have to be a "traditional" two crust Marionberry pie.
- The entire pie must be submitted for judging in a disposable pie pan.
- Recipe for the pie and pie crust must be submitted with the entry. It must be typed on one side of an 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper and must list all ingredients, quantities, and preparation instructions. Name, address, and phone number must be included on all pages.
- All recipes submitted will become the property of the Oregon Raspberry & Blackberry Commission and may be used as part of their public relations efforts in promoting Marionberries.
- Fresh, frozen, or canned Marionberries may be used.
- Judges decision is final.
